[70 FR 11472, Mar. 8, 2005, as amended at 70 FR 37702, June 30, 2005]

§ 405.927 Initial determinations subject to the reopenings process.

Minor errors or omissions in an initial determination must be corrected only through the contractor's reopenings process under § 405.980(a)(3).

§ 405.928 Effect of the initial determination.

- (a) An initial determination described in §405.924(a) is binding unless it is revised or reconsidered in accordance with 20 CFR 404.907, or revised as a result of a reopening in accordance with 20 CFR 404.988.
- (b) An initial determination described in $\S405.924$ (b) is binding upon all parties to the initial determination unless—
- (1) A redetermination is completed in accordance with §405.940 through §405.958; or
- (2) The initial determination is revised as a result of a reopening in accordance with § 405.980.
- (c) An initial determination listed in §405.924(b) where a party submits a timely, valid request for redetermination under §405.942 through §405.944 must be processed as a redetermination under §405.948 through §405.958 unless the initial determination involves a clerical error or other minor error or omission.

REDETERMINATIONS

§ 405.940 Right to a redetermination.

A person or entity that may be a party to a redetermination in accordance with §405.906(b) and that is dissatisfied with an initial determination may request a redetermination by a contractor in accordance with §405.940 through §405.958, regardless of the amount in controversy.

§ 405.942 Time frame for filing a request for a redetermination.

- (a) Time frame for filing a request. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, any request for redetermination must be filed within 120 calendar days from the date a party receives the notice of the initial determination.
- (1) For purposes of this section, the date of receipt of the initial determination will be presumed to be 5 days after the date of the notice of initial determination, unless there is evidence to the contrary.
- (2) The request is considered as filed on the date it is received by the contractor.
- (b) Extending the time frame for filing a request. General rule. If the 120-day period in which to file a request for a redetermination has expired and a party shows good cause, the contractor may extend the time frame for filing a request for redetermination.
- (1) How to request an extension. A party may file a request for an extension of time for filing a request for a redetermination with the contractor. The party should include any evidence supporting the request for extension. The request for redetermination extension must—
 - (i) Be in writing;
- (ii) State why the request for redetermination was not filed within the required time frame; and
- (iii) Meet the requirements of § 405.944.
- (2) How the contractor determines if good cause exists. In determining if a party has good cause for missing a deadline to request a redetermination, the contractor considers—
- (i) The circumstances that kept the party from making the request on time:
- (ii) If the contractor's action(s) misled the party; and
- (iii) If the party had or has any physical, mental, educational, or linguistic limitations, including any lack of facility with the English language, that prevented the party from filing a timerly request or from understanding or knowing about the need to file a timely request.
- (3) Examples of good cause. Examples of circumstances when good cause may
